

Privacy Policy

FACTS

WHAT DOES MIDCOAST FEDERAL CREDIT UNION DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and payment history
- Credit history and credit scores

When you are no longer a Midcoast FCU Member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons Midcoast Federal Credit Union chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Midcoast Federal Credit Union share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes—such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	YES	NO
For our marketing purposes—to offer our products and services to you	YES	NO
For joint marketing with other financial companies	YES	NO
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your transactions and experiences	NO	We do not share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness	NO	We do not share
For our affiliates to market to you	NO	We do not share
For non-affiliates to market to you	NO	We do not share

Questions?

Call 877-964-3262 or visit our website at <https://www.midcoastfcu.me>

More information about your privacy is continued on the next page.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Midcoast Federal Credit Union

What we do

How does Midcoast Federal Credit Union protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to persons who need to know that personal information to provide products and services to you.

How does Midcoast Federal Credit Union collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or deposit money
- Pay your bills or apply for a loan
- Use your credit or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Midcoast Federal Credit Union has no affiliates.

Non-affiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Midcoast Federal Credit Union does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between non-affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- Our joint marketing partners include financial service providers such as insurance companies and investment companies.