

Dear Member,

Thank you for your interest in serving as a Midcoast FCU volunteer. As a not-for-profit financial cooperative, our Directors and Committee Members serve in a non-compensated, volunteer capacity with the primary objective of representing the best interests of our members, while maintaining the financial strength of the Credit Union. Volunteerism can be an extremely rewarding opportunity, as you will provide leadership in the future direction of the organization and ensure its long-term viability. We ask that you review the following information, along with your time availability in consideration of this role. If you are interested in pursuing a volunteer role further, please complete the attached application. Thank you in advance for your interest in serving!

Board of Directors

Structure and Term

The Board of Directors is a seven person body elected by the members of the Credit Union to three year terms. The Board provides general direction and control of the Credit Union. Officer positions include the Board Chair, Vice Chair, Treasurer, and Secretary. Vacancies at term expiration are filled by election by our members at our annual meetings. Inter-term vacancies are filled by Board appointment until the next annual meeting.

Estimated Time Commitment

The Board of Directors meets in person on a monthly basis. Meetings are generally held on the last Tuesday of the month from 3pm to approximately 5pm at our main office in Freeport. In addition to the regular meetings, the Credit Union holds its annual meeting of the membership in March and a strategic planning session in the fall of each year in which volunteers are asked to participate.

Supervisory Committee

Structure and Term

The Supervisory Committee is a five person body appointed by the Board of Directors to three year terms. The committee's major responsibilities include:

- 1. Ensuring an external audit is completed annually through engagement of an audit firm
- 2. Ensuring a member account verification is completed every two years
- 3. Performing periodic cash counts and ensuring internal cash control policies are adhered to
- 4. Providing oversight of internal control activities

Estimated Time Commitment

The Supervisory Committee meets monthly in person and on a date and time convenient for the committee members. An additional time commitment of approximately 1-2 hours each month to complete direct oversight duties is needed. In addition to the regular meetings, the Credit Union holds its annual meeting of the membership in March and a strategic planning session in the fall of each year in which volunteers are asked to participate.

General Volunteer Information

Trainings and Education

All Directors will be supplied with the Credit Union Board of Directors Handbook developed by the Credit Union National Association (CUNA). Supervisory Committee members will receive a copy of the Supervisory Committee Guide for Federal Credit Unions provided by the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA). All volunteers may also receive a subscription to CU Magazine. Credit Union employees will provide orientation training and financial reporting education. Volunteers are also able to utilize the Credit Union's online training program to remain effective in their volunteer capacity.

Industry Learning and Networking Opportunities

Maine has a vibrant and supportive credit union industry that sponsors educational and networking opportunities throughout the year. Volunteers are highly encouraged to participate in the following events:

Event	Estimated Time Commitment	When
	1/ 11/ 5
Maine Credit Union League Annual Convention	½ -1 ½ Days	June of each year
Maine Credit Union League Volunteers Conference	1 ½ days	Fall of each year
		4X/YR
